Deptors' Omnibus Objection to Claims / Claim Number 36008
Four Hundred Fiftieth Omnibus Objection To Claims
Claimant: Mrs. Claudia Grohs, Leibnizstrasse 17, 45 219 Essen-Kettwig / Germany

Dear Sirs,

Referring to our written statement of March 11th, 2011, I am acknowledging on behalf of my daughter, Mrs. Claudia Grohs, receipt of the "Main Document No. 41667", filed and entered on Dec. 20th, 2013. This Document, comprising 194 pages of predominantly legal language, reached us on Jan. 7th, 2014. According to Deptors' expectations it should be carefully studied and commented in writing within the two remaining weeks, i. e. before deadline-date in New York on Jan. 21rst, 2014, simultaneously observing a number of Rules and Regulations which we are not familiar with.

Whereas the impossibility to comply with such conditions is obvious, the reader of our present response should, please, consider the following as well:

- 1) Here in Germany no attorney-at-law, meeting the qualifications as required above, is available on such a short notice and this in a world-wide (just ending) seasonal holiday-period. - Moreover it is a matter of fact, that Mrs. Grohs does not have a Legal Department at her disposal.
- 2) Even if one could find a solution to the afore mentioned problem, then the related expenditures would for sure be out of proportion compared to the "Reduced Amount" of US-Dollar 12.990,06 which Debtors unilaterally choose to concede to Mrs. Grohs.

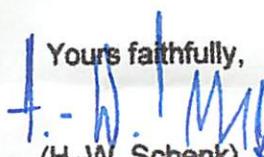

For Mrs. Grohs, who is a widow, a single parent mother, who invested her savings (Euro 65.000,00) in good faith and to the best of her (none-professional) knowledge into Lehman Brothers-Securities (not having seen any Prospectus prior to this investment) - for her, the situation is obvious and clear and does not require the paper-work which we receive since years:

Her investment was simply made into "Lehman Brothers" resp. their affiliation in the UK, who, of course, have been used by LBHI as a tool to raise funds in overseas. - This is why in our belief her investment must be treated in the same way as that of "Recognized Holders of LBHI-Securities".

Finally we strongly believe, that US law also allows moral reasoning, so that Mrs. Grohs' special case is not only handled like a "Blocking Number" - as is presently the case.

We assume, that our response will be accepted in its present form and that the matter of Mrs. Grohs will be considered resp. reconsidered in the light of the above.

Yours faithfully,

(H.-W. Schenk)

For and on behalf of Mrs. Claudia Grohs
